

TAQA

This course provides the qualification required by awarding bodies for anyone involved in assessing or quality assuring.

Admission to the course is subject to interview.

Do I need previous experience or qualifications to join the course?

You must be assessing or internally verifying candidates who are on Learning programmes to complete the certificate. There are a variety of qualifications.

What can I expect to learn?

Assessor and Quality Assurance Awards - AQA Level 3

Certificate in Assessing Vocational Achievement AQA Level 3

This is the qualification you need if you are assessing candidates using a variety of assessment methods

Certificate in Leading the Internal Quality Assurance of Assessment Processes and Practice AQA- Level 4

This qualifies you to lead Internal Quality Assurance within a centre/organisation

How will the course be delivered?

You will compile a portfolio which will enable you to demonstrate your competence. There are no formal examinations, but you will agree an assessment plan and provide evidence for your assessor to gain the qualification.
